High School Facilities Task Force Concludes Work

Community Volunteers Report Findings to Board of Education

After working intensively together for three months this spring, more than 30 community volunteers who served on the High School Facilities Task Force (HSFT) provided the Board of Education on June 11, 2007, with a comprehensive report of their findings and recommendations (please see page two for the HSFT roster). The HSFT was officially charged by the Board of Education in February 2007 to help assess and prioritize significant facility concerns at Jefferson High School and to provide the Board with advisory recommendations regarding potential solutions.

In their report, the HSFT stated that—with overwhelming majority—they believe the current Jefferson High School does not meet the needs of our students and staff. The group based this determination on the following primary concerns:

- The District must provide for the safety and security of students and staff.
- The District must provide for the educational needs of ALL students.
- The District should update the physical education curriculum and athletic facilities.
- The District should present the most fiscally responsible, long-term solution to taxpayers.

Jefferson Board of Education members receive the report of the High School Facilities Task Force at their June 11 meeting.

As part of their extensive research and review process, the HSFT closely evaluated the current High School and then considered six different facility improvement options. These options varied from extensive remodeling, to remodeling with additions, to constructing a new school on the new site within the school district. The preliminary cost estimates associated with these options ranged from approximately $19 million to more than $49 million.

“The recommendation put forth by the HSFT is the option that will best provide our students with an environment of excellence and opportunity for all to achieve their dreams.”

Ultimately, for the reasons stated at left, the HSFT recommended the Board of Education seriously consider rebuilding a new High School at the existing location while maintaining the existing auditorium, music area, and administrative space. Once the new, two-story facility is complete, the former academic areas would be removed to make way for additional parking and green space. Their recommendation also includes slightly relocating the track/football field, as well as the baseball field to improve access to the new school. The preliminary, estimated cost of the HSFT's recommendation is approximately $43.5 million. For a taxpayer with property valued at $100,000, this translates to a tax increase of approximately $291 a year or $24 a month.

In conclusion, the HSFT stated that “Our school should symbolize all that we encompass as a community and exhibit our community’s character. The recommendation put forth by the HSFT is the option that will best provide our students with an environment of excellence and opportunity for all to achieve their dreams. This is the Jefferson Way.”

The HSFT's formal report includes a detailed review of the current facility's history and deficiencies, a breakdown of the various options considered, their rationale for the recommended option, and a preliminary concept drawing and site plan for the proposed new school. Residents are urged to review the task force's complete report for more information—copies are available on the District website facility issues at Jefferson High School. Based on the findings, any solution should include the following major characteristics: secure entrances, energy efficiency, enhanced classroom technology, improved science classrooms/labs, and high quality construction that is fiscally responsible, and not lavish or unnecessary.

Thank you to all residents who participated in this important community survey. Stay tuned for more ways to get informed and get involved in our facility planning this fall!

First Day of School Reminders for Jefferson High School Students

by Richard Lovett, Jefferson High School Principal

Jefferson High School will once again focus on incoming freshmen and transfer students on the first day of school. This concept was first piloted during the start of the 2006-07 school year and proved to be very beneficial to these students. Parents and students are therefore reminded that Tuesday, September 4, will once again be a required day of attendance for freshmen and transfer students. As with other days of school, students will be responsible for their lunch expenses.

On September 4, incoming freshmen and transfer students will work with our high school teachers and counselors in small groups. Students and staff will work on a variety of activities that will help students understand building procedures, the ways of living a successful high school life, and building camaraderie as a member of the class of 2011. Our goal is to make this day valuable, interesting, and one that will result in a better understanding for the student of what high school is all about. New responsibilities, greater perseverance, and good self-discipline are all traits we see as important ones for student success, and our staff is committed to ensuring that our students do succeed.

The first scheduled day of classes for our sophomores, juniors, and seniors will be on Wednesday, September 5. Since many school procedures remain the same from year to year, Wednesday will be a day when all students will begin their classes. Our staff is looking forward to meeting our new students and welcoming back our returning students.

Orientation for Freshmen Parents

by Richard Lovett,
Jefferson High School Principal

This year's orientation night for parents of freshmen and transfer students is scheduled for Thursday, September 6, at 6:30 p.m., in the High School auditorium. This meeting with parents has been designed to follow on the heels of our freshmen only first day and our first full day of school. Please make plans to attend, and myself and Mr. Linse, Associate High School Principal, will be in attendance to answer questions or field suggestions.

Middle School Advisory Program

by Mark Rollefson,
Middle School Principal

At Jefferson Middle School each student has a faculty advisor. This advisor talks with the student, the teachers and the parents, and keeps track of the student's progress during the year. In addition to helping each student recognize strengths, weaknesses, interests and hopes, the advisor also helps guide students with their academics and may also help students navigate and make sound decisions in their social lives. The best way for parents to find out what is happening or to ask a question about the student is to call the advisor.

For seventh graders and their families, the advisory group is an important transitional step beyond homeroom-based sixth grade. In eighth grade, advisors help cultivate and foster a growing independence and responsibility, which leads students toward greater autonomy in the later grades.

by John Orcutt, Sullivan Elem. Principal

The second annual Sullivan Elementary Open House/Ice Cream Social will be held on Thursday, August 30, from 4:00-6:00 p.m. In hosting this event prior to the start of the school year, the staff of Sullivan feel that our students and families will experience a

This event also provides our new Sullivan students and families an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the staff and their surroundings. Discussion topics will include seating assignments, recess line up, school supplies, and the meal program. All of these activities will help promote a very positive first day of school experience for our students.

Staffing Changes
